AIA GROUP APPOINTS SHU KHOO AS GROUP HUMAN RESOURCES DIRECTOR

HONG KONG, 3 JANUARY 2011 – AIA Group Limited, (“AIA”; stock code: 1299), the world’s largest independent listed pan-Asian life insurance group, announces the appointment of Shu Khoo as Executive Vice President & Group Human Resources Director effective today.

Ms. Khoo is joining AIA from AXA where she was most recently Group Executive Vice President, Global Human Resources with oversight of the company’s global leadership and talent management. She first joined AXA in 2005 as Regional Head, Human Resources & Internal Communications, responsible for driving its people management strategy across eight Asian markets.

Prior to AXA, Ms. Khoo was Regional Head of Human Resources for Prudential Corporation Asia based in Hong Kong where for six years she helped drive a full spectrum of talent development and change initiatives across 12 markets including established operations, new market entries, green field start-ups and joint ventures.

Mr. Mark Tucker, AIA’s President and Group Chief Executive, said: “I’m absolutely delighted to have Shu joining the AIA team. With her rich breadth of expertise and experience in people management, I am very confident she will help us meet the people needs of a growing and independent AIA.”

Ms. Khoo, who will spearhead the development of overall HR strategies, priorities and deliverables and support Group and local management in developing a performance-driven culture across AIA’s 15 life insurance operations across the region, said: “For me, this is a very exciting time to accept this new post: at the beginning of a new phase in the development of AIA as an independent company with almost unparalleled growth potential. I very much look forward to working with a great team, adding value and contributing to its further success. “
