HEALTHIER, LONGER, BETTER LIVES

Our Voluntary Solutions complement and strengthen your core employee benefits offering, empowering employees to make the right decisions for them. These range from top-ups and conversion privileges on core plans, to standalone portable insurance products, with preferential terms which may include nil or reduced underwriting requirements and group rate discounts.

For employees under group insurance schemes, we also offer unparalleled access to our range of life and health protection and long-term savings products, through our professional and dedicated distribution force.

BENEFITS
